Course Overview

The Assured Diploma in English course is delivered using the communicative approach to language teaching and learning, which is a recognised teaching methodology practiced around the world, together with a substantial amount of practical exposure. The programme consists of 15 units and 4 assessments. The learner must obtain the pass marks for the MCQ paper including Grammar and Vocabulary, Reading and Writing, Listening and Speaking test including Presentation and viva to be eligible for the Pearson Assured certificate. The assessments are done based on learner's presentation skills, usage of the language in an efficient and effective way in both reading and writing (knowledge), creativity, and effective speaking.
